

Student Success Webinar Series
2013-2014

Beyond Retention: Early Identification and Intervention with First-Year Students

Presenters: Loralyn Taylor and Virginia McAleese, Paul Smith's College
Produced by The Consortium for Student Retention Data Exchange (CSRDE)
Monica Brockmeyer will host a discussion following

November 20, 2013 2:00pm – 4:00pm
Purdy/Kresge Library Simons Room | 5265 Cass Detroit, MI 48202

RSVP: <http://events.wayne.edu/rsvp/webinar-retention/#rsvp>

Other Webinars

January 15, 2014	PACT: A Revolutionary Retention Program
February 19, 2014	Summer Bridge: A Model for Impacting Student Retention
March 19, 2014	A Three-Prong Approach to Increasing Student Success and Retention
April 9, 2014	An Ever Improving Formula for Success in General Chemistry: Increasing Student Performance in a Barrier Course
May 14, 2014	Closing the Achievement Gap: The University Transition Opportunities Program and 25 Years of Collaborative Support for Underrepresented Student Populations
June 11, 2014	The Attrition is in the Details: Students, Faculty, and Textbooks
July 16, 2014	Using Self-Regulated Learning Methods to Increase Native American College Retention
July 30, 2014	Creating Pathways to Student Success: Accelerating Developmental Education in the Community College

All webinars from 2pm to 3pm, followed by a discussion

Open to all members of the Wayne State University community

Office of the Associate Provost Student Success
4092 FAR

e-mail: mbrockmeyer@wayne.edu
7-2023, 7-5666 (fax)