Charge From The Provost

The Committee is charged with investigating the current state of child-care options available to students, staff, and faculty, both on campus and in the midtown neighborhood. This investigation shall include costs for child-care, hours of available child-care, and other issues as may arise. The committee is also charged with proposing alternatives or improvements that the University could feasibly undertake, either alone or in cooperation with other midtown entities.

Received in the Office of the Academic Senate on Dec. 2, 2015
Report due end of Winter Semester
